

Displayer of industry excellence, Connor Hanrahan shares The 12-Week Strategy For Taking the CWT Exam

The 12-Week Strategy

Scaling UP! H2O, the premier podcast for professionals in the water industry, is excited to announce the release of a new episode featuring Connor Hanrahan, Technical Manager at IWC Industrial Water Engineering, and his insights on preparing for the Certified Water Technologist (CWT) Exam.

In the episode, Hanrahan shares his experience and tips on studying for the CWT Exam, including how to mentally prepare for a 200-question exam and what to expect at the testing facility. Hanrahan emphasizes the importance of planning and committing to a quarter to take the exam, noting, "I would absolutely say pick a quarter (12 weeks) that you think it's doable. Get it done in that quarter... Commit to a quarter, get your test scheduled, and get it done. Because it feels great!"

Listeners will also gain valuable insight on the complexity of water treatment, as Hanrahan states, "Water is endlessly complex, in a beautiful way." The episode provides practical advice and resources for anyone looking to take the CWT Exam and advance their career in the best industry in the world, water treatment.

In the episode, Hanrahan highlights the importance of planning, mindset, and commitment for CWT Exam success. He also shares his personal strategies for studying, taking the exam at the testing facility, and mentally preparing for the 200-question exam.

Feel prepared for the CWT Exam

According to Hanrahan, "The CWT Exam was harder than I expected. It is pretty tough; they do not joke around. The CWT does such a good job of setting a bar right for water treatment excellence." However, with the right roadmap and commitment, he believes that water treatment professionals can achieve excellence and feel great about it. "Commit to a quarter, get your test scheduled, and get it done. Because it feels great."

By following Hanrahan's valuable tips for studying, taking the exam, and mentally preparing for a 200-question challenge, you, too, can feel confident and prepared for the CWT Exam.

The new episode of Scaling UP! H2O featuring Connor Hanrahan will be available for free on all major podcast platforms, including Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and Google Podcasts on Friday, May 19th.
